

Collateral Consequences

SUPPORT GROUP

MWR Counseling is pleased to offer a support group for spouses, significant others, and partners of individuals who have been charged with or convicted of sexual offenses.

When a member of our family, someone we know and care about, is charged with or convicted of a sexual offense, the ramifications and consequences are not limited to the offender themselves. Instead, the consequences of sexual offenses are also experienced by spouses, significant others, and partners. Adjusting to life after charge and conviction, coping with the social consequences, complying with probation/parole/registry requirements, and attempting to forge a new sense of normalcy are unique experiences for partners of those charged or convicted. Unfortunately, there tend to be few specific resources available for family members.

Who: This group is open to anyone experiencing a spouse, significant other, or partner being charged with or convicted of a sexual offense. This group is not intended for children or the victims of sexual abuse.

What: This support group is intended to provide a space for persons who have experienced a spouse, significant other, or partner being charged with or convicted of a sexual offense to find support and resources from others in similar situations.
